Avent Wins Damages Against Railroad

J. M. Avant, international expert in matters of railroads, was awarded a judgment of $2,500 late Tuesday in Second circuit court by a jury in his suit for damages in the sum of $50,000 for injuries he alleges he received in 1916 while a passenger on the Morgan, Louisiana & Texas railroad. The defendants in the case were M. L. & T. The Southern Pacific Railway company and the New Orleans & Texas Railroad company. Judge Capell ruled that the responsibility for the accident did not apply to the latter road. The case was on trial for four days.

CORK TERRORIZED.

CORK, Oct. 4.—The residents of Cork had another terrifying experience early yesterday. The cause of the trouble was a brush between the military and unidentified persons who fired on curfew patrols. The patrols replied with heavy fusillades of machine guns, sweeping all suspected areas with searchlights.

CATHOLIC BISHOP DIES.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Oct. 6.—Bishop Thomas D. Beven, for 28 years head of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Springfield, died yesterday of heart disease. He had been unable to attend to his duties until within a day or two. He was 71 years old and a native of this city. He succeeded to the bishopric on the death of Bishop T. P. O'Reilly in 1892.

WOMEN NOMINATED.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Oct. 6.—Two women were given places on the state ticket by the Democratic state convention. Edward M. Sullivan, of Cranston, was selected to head the ticket, with Elizabeth Upham Yates, of Providence, for lieutenant-governor, and Miss Helen I. Binning, of Providence, for secretary of state.

CONFERS WITH WILSON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 6.—Homer S. Cummings, former chairman of the Democratic national committee, had a conference with President Wilson before departing on a Western speaking trip. Mr. Cummings refused to discuss his talk with the president.

WOULD CHECK CAR FARE RAISE IN NEW ORLEANS

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 6.—Attorney-General A. V. Coco has filed in civil district court a petition asking for a writ of injunction restraining the city of New Orleans from authorizing an increase of street car fares from 6 to 8 cents, as recommended in a recent report of special masters appointed to adjust difficulties existing between the New Orleans Railway and Light company and its union employees. Hearing on the petition was set for Oct. 15, and in a court order the city commission council was commanded to discontinue any proceedings relative to the matter.

SUGAR EMBARGO LIFTED.

RIO JANEIRO, Oct. 6.—Simoes Lopez, minister of agriculture, has signed a decree permitting free exportation of sugar from Brazil, the only restriction being that sufficient stocks must be maintained for home consumption. Prohibition of the exportation of sugar was enforced from July, 1917, until recently when the ban was partly raised.
